Dear Sir:-

I spoke to Mr. Newell about that find of Roman coins you showed me the other day. He said that they had been shown to him over two years ago, and he knows for a fact that they have been shown to other people even before that time. At the time they were shown to him, the man mentioned that he had been offered $50.00 for one of the coins but he could not pick out which one it was (neither could we!).

Very truly yours,

Curator.
